FALL FELLOWSHIP 2011 "We'll Make You An Offer You Can't Refuse!"

Have you been looking for a way to strengthen your brotherhood in the Order, or have great fellowship with your brothers? How about experiencing once in a lifetime opportunities? If so Fall Fellowship 2011: The Godfather is the place for you. Fall Fellowship will be a once in a lifetime opportunity for you and your brothers to experience an Italian themed event that has exciting activities beyond your wildest dreams. Camping for the weekend of September 16-18 will take place at Camp Stahlman but all of Boxwell Reservation will be used for the weekend's Italian style and GPS activities. The event will also feature a team style of competition with everyone being divided up into families.

Anyone who attends will also receive a patch commemorating the event along with a chance to buy more. If you have any questions about the event be sure to check out the Lodge website at www.wa-hi-nasa.org for up-to-date information. Come to Fall Fellowship 2011: The Godfather where Don Farley will make you an offer you can't refuse!

NOAC 2012: Where Memories are Made

The lodge hopes that you will consider joining us for the 2012 National Order of the Arrow Conference at Michigan State University. NOAC is an awesome week of fun and fellowship with up to 10,000 of your fellow Arrowmen from across the country. Enjoy university life while you compete in intramural athletics and ceremonies, participate in unique training sessions, and take in all the sights and sounds the Order of the Arrow has to offer. You can also check out www.wa-hi-nasa.org and www.oa-bsa.org for the latest information.

We are taking early-bird reservations NOW!!! You only need to make a $25 deposit to reserve your spot on our 2012 contingent. The final cost is $545 for youth (under 21) and $595 for adults.

- Adviser's Corner
- Chiefly Speaking

... And Much More

Chiefly Speaking

Brothers,

I can't believe how fast this year has come and gone. I would like to thank everyone one who attended the Wednesday night crackerbarrels. This summer we had 89 brothers go through brotherhood which makes 128 overall for the year. We have 3 more events this year. In September, Vice Chief of Program Drew Farley will be putting on Fall Fellowship and it is going to be an event that you do not want to miss. There will be anything and everything Italian, and yes that means if you have a suit or any Italian attire, wear it and join the party! Another thing we need to start looking at is if you would like to be on winter camp staff. If you have ever asked yourself "how can I serve my brothers," winter camp staff is the answer. There is no better way to serve than by coming and working on winter camp staff. If you are interested, please email me with your name, address, and phone number and we will get you on the list. I hope to see you all at the events to come.

Yours in Service,
Zachary Rice
2011 Lodge Chief

Seal the Deal with Brotherhood

Brotherhood this year has started off strong with 128 Ordeal members sealing the deal and obtaining their Brotherhood. Congratulations to all of our new Brotherhood members!

If you are an Ordeal member who has been in the Order for at least ten months, the lodge would like to invite you to come out to Fall Fellowship on September 16-18, 2011. Brotherhood Review will begin at the Howard B. Olson Order of the Arrow Lodge on Saturday and the Ceremony will follow immediately after. Brotherhood will cost $14; if you have not currently paid your dues for 2011 then the cost will be $30.

The lodge looks forward to seeing many more Brotherhood members! If you have any questions concerning Brotherhood please contact the Brotherhood Warrior, Kody Okert.

Indian Summer: The Ultimate Ceremonial Experience

Indian Summer convened on August 1-6 in Asheville, NC for an incredible ceremonial event. Our lodge sent a contingent of 6 Arrowmen: Josh Fowler, Zach Rice, Michael Danielson, Terry Luckett, Steve Probst, and TJ Luckett. We had 3 staff members, Matt Brown, who was on the Activities and Recreation staff (ARC), Shawn Barnes who was on the Inductions and ceremonial events staff (ICE), and Craig Salazar. It was like a mini NOAC, with the focus being on Native Americans.

There was a Pow-Wow every day, and each one had a focus on a certain dance style, such as grass, fancy, and traditional. The opening gathering on Tuesday night featured the legend of the three Lenne Lanape boys, and speeches from National Chief Jonathan Hillis, National Vice Chief, Dan Dick, and National Chairman Ray Capp.

Remembering Patrick Deugaw

The lodge mourns the death of longtime Scouter and Order of the Arrow member: Patrick Lynn Deugaw. Mr. Deugaw passed away on June 29, 2011 at Vanderbilt Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee at age 71 after complications from surgery. Pat has been a part of the Order for a great deal of years and was known and respected by all. He served in many advisory roles in the Lodge and help in starting troop 525 in Clarksville, Tennessee.

All who knew the late Mr. Deugaw knew that he was a great supporter of Scouting, yet an even greater supporter of the Order of the Arrow and lived his life by its principles. His Scouting record included serving on Summer Camp Staff for many years, being in an advisory role for the Order numerous times, and several other roles within his troop and district. Pat was also a Vigil Honor member, Founder's Award recipient, and Silver Beaver recipient.

He is survived by his wife Margret Deugaw of Clarksville, 2 sons: Mark Deugaw of Munford, Tennessee and Dale Deugaw of San Diego, California. However, Pat will live on in the memories of all that knew him.

Crackerbarrels Wrap Up Summer Camp

Did you go to the Order of the Arrow Cracker Barrels on Wednesday nights this summer? If not then here is what you have missed. The Lodge welcomed eighty-nine new Brotherhood members. Also Arrowmen from Wa-Hi-Nasa and others from all across the country enjoyed ice cream, fellowship, and the Order of the Arrow Trading Post. The Lodge also hosted many special guests, one of which was National Chairman Ray Capp. If you missed out on all the fun, then you missed a great time. Be sure and mark your calendars because next years Wednesday night Crackerbarrels at Boxwell Reservation are sure to be a great time that you do not want to miss!

Arrowmen enjoy ice cream at crackerbarrels.

Awards

Do you know someone who has gone out of there way to make the lodge and this year the best it could be? If so nominate them for an award which will be given at the lodge's Winter Banquet. Awards forms can be found online at wa-hi-nasa.org or at Fall Fellowship and are very easy fill out with just a few short minutes of your time. So be sure to nominate those who you feel deserve recognition for all of their hard work.

Arrowman Spotlight

Marshall Nye is a 16 year old Life scout from Crossville, Tennessee. He is an active member of Troop 18 out of Monterey, Tennessee where he is the instructor. In the Order, Marshall is a Brotherhood member and currently serves as the Machtagen Chapter Vice Chief. He has also served as a staff member at many Lodge events and Winter Camp. Marshall competes regularly in chess events and competitions. He recently placed fourth in Tennessee State Chess Tournament.

Alongside competing in chess, you may have seen Marshall around Lodge events with a yo-yo or two. This is because Marshall is an amateur yo-yo competitor. He has competed in many yo-yo competitions in recent years and received first place in beginning freestyle at state this year. "I plan on continuing my yo-yoing career and hopefully one day become sponsored." Good luck Marshall!

Ordeals

With the summer brought both Spring and Fall Ordeals and the opportunity to serve Boxwell Reservation once again. Over 300 new members were inducted into the Order. There were also approximately 140 Ordeal members who sealed the deal and went through Brotherhood.

Over 200 members also attended with an urge to serve. Each member played a key role in making the Ordeals a success. A few of the roles included: member's crews, ceremonies, Elangomats, kitchen staff, and registration staff. Vice Chief of Service Mason Johnson would like to thank everyone who attended Ordeals and made it such a success.

Wednesday brought about the Gathering of the Nations, which was big party. It featured a blow up bungee cord run, blow up obstacle course with a slide at the end, put-put, frisbee golf, a guess your speed baseball toss, mini basketball shooting, other carnival games, and free ice cream. There was a National Forum on Inductions on Thursday which had a panel that included the region chiefs, the National Chief and Vice Chief, and some members of the National Committee. The forum answered questions from Arrowmen ranging from unit elections to running an ordeal. Friday brought about the closing gathering which touched on the history of the Order of the Arrow and the first induction. Arrowmen could take classes on a variety of things related to Native Americans.

There were classes on the different types of dancing and the singing that went with it. One could take classes about the symbolism of the ceremonies, and how to bring out their principle during a ceremony. There were classes that offered individual coaching for ceremonies. Arrowmen could learn how to do the crafts of the Native Americans like lane stitch, gourd and applique, and loom bead working. As well as finger weaving and bone work. One could learn how to prepare a feather for a bonnet, and learn the steps on how to make a war bonnet. Indian Summer will always be remembered as a once in a lifetime amazing event.

Brothers,

All of us have a preferred comfort zone. Our comfort zone is something that has both positive and negative qualities for our lives. Most of us are creatures of habit and want to be comfortable with our personal lives to the extent that we are relatively free from constant worry. Unfortunately, if we allow ourselves to be too comfortable, we can miss the fulfillment of our potential—in all aspects of life.

There is a story about two hikers who were hiking along in the woods one night in utter darkness. Their flashlights were burned out and it was difficult to see the trail. In front of them was a tree that blocked the trail. They had to deviate off the trail to attempt to go around the blockage. Off the trail, they did not see a huge hole. Unwittingly, they both fell into the hole. They struggled profusely to get out, but simply couldn't climb up the steep walls in the blackness of the night. Content that they would have to wait until morning to get out, they sat down in the corner and quickly fell asleep.

Several hours later a lone hiker found himself also falling to the bottom of the hole. He too struggled and strained to get out, but, exhausted, he decided to sit down and wait for the morning light. As he was about to rest he heard a sluggish voice in the darkness say, "Forget it, you can't get out."

Faster than you can blink your eyes, he was out of the hole! It is amazing that when the lone hiker was not comfortable any more, when he had a little fear in him and didn't feel safe, he was able to jump higher, climb farther, and put forth a little more effort. Imagine what you can accomplish if you simply put forth a little more effort.

Avoid getting too comfortable in your life. Do something this week that takes you out of your comfort zone and out of your normal routine. Start small and discipline yourself to do something that stretches you to become better, improve a skill, or expand your experiences. Striving to push your own comfort zone will make you feel more alive and more in tune with your senses. Yes, comfort is desirable to an extent, but not when it stifles your ability truly to live up to your potential.

Yours in WWW,
Jim Klaus

NOAC.....

This includes your conference fee, lodging, transportation, meals, and special contingent-only items. We are also planning to spend a night at the Caribbean Cove Indoor Water Park and Hotel in Indianapolis, Indiana. Your conference fee covers the cost of your room and admission to the water park.

Contingent members will also receive a special limited-edition lodge flap reserved only for NOAC contingent members. Best of all, if you put a deposit down by the 2011 Fall Fellowship, you will earn an EXTRA free contingent flap. Get another 1st time NOAC contingent member to put down a deposit up by the 2011 Fall Fellowship, and you will receive ANOTHER contingent flap. You'll only need to bring your balance up to $100 by the 2011 Winter Banquet.
