Wa-Hi-Nasa Lodge No. 111 - Middle Tennessee Council No. 560 - Vol. 79 No. 1 Dec. 2015- Adam Riley, Editor

Hail to the NEW Chief

My fellow Arromen,
The Wa-Hi-Nasa Lodge is hitting the ground running entering the Order of the Arrow's second century. There are many programs that I intend to get the ball rolling on this year that will continue for years to come, and that I hope will have a lasting impact on the lodge. I look forward to serving you as your 2016 Lodge Chief, and appreciate being able to work with such a great bunch of individuals.

Yours In Service,
Sid Salazar

Chiefly Speaking

Thank you all for coming out tonight to one of my favorite Lodge events. It has been a wild time, and I am extremely grateful for the chance to serve with you all this year.

I first want to thank everyone that has helped grow this lodge and develop the program and leadership we pride ourselves in. Our cast of chapter chiefs and chairmen were invaluable in making this Lodge run this year. I especially want to thank the volunteers. Kitchen, Elangomats, ceremonies teams, Service crew, and many others ensured that everything ran smoothly. To you, we (the Lodge Officers) are indebted.

I especially want to thank the advisers. The wisdom and guidance you bring is crucial to the development of the young Arrowmen in our Lodge. We know we can be difficult, but we cannot thank you enough for your patience and support. Youth, make sure to personally thank your advisers. They sacrifice time and energy to help us, and they appreciate any thanks we can give.

I am excited for the next step for the Lodge. The upcoming talent and leadership is especially promising, and I look forward to seeing them take the reins. To the next leaders, thank you for stepping up to lead the Lodge to the next 100 years of service. You will do great.

Yours in Service,
Jack Adamson

Adviser's Corner

Brothers:

At the end of the year, we often reflect on the past year and realize that our successes and challenges give us great perspective of our work, life and future. I often reflect and visualize events in a type of "snapshot" view that gives me reason to smile, laugh and consider the good times. Here are a few of my mental pictures and memories from our OA Centennial Year.

The "OAU Adjustment" from Latimer to Boxwell: A snow and ice storm required a last-minute relocation for our training event. Brothers pitched in and put forth 110% effort to make this work. Yes, we can make a "Plan B" successful! Conclave at Buck Toms: Enjoying the section elections and seeing the face of Hunter Jones when he became our SR-6 Section Chief. That was definitely worth the wait!

Ordeal Preparations: Working with 10-day-out crews to get ready for the weekends. Watching the sky all during Ordeal weekends for threatening rain.

ArrowTour: Assisting the Southern Region ArrowTour Crew to prepare for their 6-week trip through the southeast. Hosting over 600 visitors at Boxwell for the first stop on the tour.

NOAC Transportation: If you need to rent a bus for a trip to Michigan late on a Saturday night, Bill Gregory is your man! ("Oh, by the way, we need to leave in 8 hours.")

NOAC: Singing "Let it Go", "Shake it Off", and "Sweet Caroline" with 16,000 OA Brothers at the NOAC Show. We will never forget that. (We also won't forget filling out the online BSA medical form.) Getting a "spark" from Arrowmen from all 50 states.

Fall Fellowship: A great weekend of fun, fellowship, Ga-Ga ball, redneck nautical cornhole, and "mystery cobbler". OA Brothers picking up hay for Ranger Rob to beat the rain.

Working with an amazing group of Officers, Chairmen, and Advisers: Thank you, Lodge Chief Jack Adamson, for your leadership.

In summary, these memories and this year have been "Priceless" for me. I hope it has been for you, too. I am looking forward to 2016 and the beginning of the next 100 years of the Order.

Remember the Obligation.
