Adviser's Corner

Winter Camp is almost upon us. It will be held December 26-31, 2019 at Boxwell Scout Reservation. If you are an adult and cannot commit to coming the full week we would love to have you be a merit badge counselor for a day! I look forward to seeing you all there!

If you are interested in staffing, please visit us at <https://wa-hi-nasa.org/wintercamp/> or scan the QR code below to fill out the Winter Camp Staff Application!

- Stephen Ward

2019 Boxwell Winter Camp Chairman

If you are signed up for Winter Camp Latimer, you're in for a treat! This year will be the largest winter camp that Latimer has ever seen! The theme is "Into the Jungle", so come ready to explore the merit badges we are offering this year, including metalwork, welding, and more! Grab your jungle gear and come ready for some awesome free-time activities, that you will just have to come explore for yourself! Feel free to dress up you, your troop, and your campsite in Jungle theme. Can you out jungle the staff? The staff and I are very excited to camp with you all this winter! We have planned an awesome week at Camp Latimer that you wouldn't want to miss! See you Friday, December 27, for the Winter Camp Latimer kick off!

Happy Camping!

Incoming Chiefly Speaking

Dear Brothers, I am honored and excited to serve you as Lodge Chief in 2020! It is with great reverence take on this responsibility. Exciting times are ahead for our Lodge. A NEW DECADE, Middle Tennessee Council's 100th Anniversary, National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC), and new opportunities for cheerful service! My Lodge Officers and I are already hard at work to ensure the best year for you and our Lodge. Throughout our Lodge's 81 years, something many of our Chiefs, Leaders, and members have said is that we are the best Lodge in the Nation. What warrants this bold claim? For years, Wa-Hi-Nasa has enjoyed a rich history and culture of servant-leadership, and I'm continually thankful for that. We are uniquely blessed with several people who hold true the high ideals of Brotherhood, Cheerfulness, and service, through all levels of our Order. When we go to NOAC this year, I want our lodge to be known for the passion we have for our Order. We recognize the importance of our Brotherhood, and servant leadership. Give this passion to your units, your schools, and most importantly each other. This is what makes Wa-Hi-Nasa truly great.

Yours in Scouting,

Rodney Bakken

Outgoing Chiefly Speaking

My fellow Arrowmen,

It's been an honor to serve as lodge chief for such a committed lodge. I've met so many interesting people this year that have made me proud to be an Arrowman.

I would like to use this space to share my gratitude for the Order of the Arrow. I've been in the program since 2014, and I can say that our lodge unequivocally grows youth into service-driven adults. Our lodge is different on a fundamental level; a level in which we exist to better the units that we serve in every day.

So thank you to all of the chiefs and Arrowmen that came before me. I have grown extraordinarily because of it. We have worked profusely, and I am proud to say that we have ensured that the order will be around for the next generation.

Yours in Scouting,

Matthew

Adviser's Corner

Plans are only good intentions unless they immediately degenerate into hard work.

--Peter Drucker

As we hurry into 2020, it is the time for us to evaluate our performance in 2019 and make plans for the coming year. And as we complete those plans, we have to "turn the corner" from planning to execution. As a Lodge, our leadership has worked to set goals and create plans for 2020 over the last few months. It is now time for those "good intentions" to "degenerate into hard work."

In today's society, we tend to think of technology as a solution for nearly everything. It helps us organize, communicate, collect and nearly whatever else you can think of. But there is still no better way to get a project off the ground than to ask someone specifically to help. Especially when the project is large. Some people will respond to a mass email but if you want to get things done, ask specific people to help and give them a specific job to do. Share your goal and your vision and you may be surprised at the progress people will help you make. And then shepherd the hard work until you accomplish your goals in 2020!

Yours in Service,

Craig Salazar
